"Never," answered Senator Sorghum. "I never considered to answer accusations. I have always found myself safe in assuming that the other fellows were just as uneasy in their consciences as I was, and I kept them busy looking for vindications on their own account."

Tracy Off
Once More

Escapes to Port Madison in a Japanese Fisherman's Boat.

And From There Makes His Escape By Water to Parts Unknown

Apparently All Trace of Desperado Has Been Lost Temporarily.

Seattle, July 7.—All trace of Tracy the desperado has disappeared for the present. This evening word was received from Sheriff Cuddehe's party, who went to Madison on the tug Sea Lion on a chase after the missing man, states that so far no clue to Tracy's whereabouts has been secured. The mysterious desperado has been apparently successful again in eluding pursuit as on former occasions.

While the sheriff's posse imagined they had Tracy surrounded in a barn near Bothell on Saturday night, the hunted man was far from there.

Tracy's flight from the vicinity of Bothell Friday was unexpected. According to his own story he beat across country to Meadow point, where he held up a Japanese fisherman. At the point of his Winchester rifle he forced the man to take him across the Sound to Port Madison. At Madison the murderer entered the home of a Scandinavian family named Johnson. There he ate a hearty meal and changed his clothing. He made no effort to conceal his identity. When he left the house, Tracy left all the members of the family tied to beds and gagged. He took the Johnsons' hired man, who is named Anderson, with him and left Madison in a large Whitehall boat belonging to the family. Anderson accompanied him in the boat. He set sail down the Sound Saturday afternoon at dusk.

The news of Tracy's latest exploit spread like wildfire. Sheriff Cuddehe returned from Bothell on the Sunday morning train and organized a new posse. The tug Sea Lion was chartered and the party left Sunday afternoon for Madison. It consisted of a large number of heavily armed men.

Fears were entertained that Tracy, after landing, would murder Anderson to conceal his movements.

Word came tonight that the sheriff hoped to get some trace of Anderson before morning.

SUPERIOR SINKS.

New Tug Comes to Grief in Vancouver Narrows.

Vancouver, July 7.—(Special)—The new tug Superior attempted to turn in around Brockton point this evening with a boom. The boom was carried on by the tide and the tug, caught in a rip, was carried in the opposite direction. Before the hawser could be cut the tug was dragged under and sunk. The six men aboard were rescued by a steam launch from H. M. S. Shearwater.

BOMBS IN PENITENTIARY.

Prisoners in St. Vincent de Paul Cause Explosion.

Montreal, July 8.—An investigation is now being held at St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary into a startling occurrence of a few days ago. When the convicts were confined to their cells three bombs were thrown from a cell in the top range of the southeast corridor. Only one exploded. That went off with an awful crash, tearing a hole in the flooring of the corridor and creating a panic throughout the building. Eventually the guards managed to calm the convicts. The bombs were constructed of wool and filled with blasting powder, secured from the prison quarry. Whether they were thrown with the hope that in the ruin resulting it would be possible to effect an escape or from other devilry is not known, for the prison authorities absolutely decline to discuss the matter. The damage done to the building was not serious.

SUN DANCE STOPPED.

And Cheyenne Indians Are Wrathful Against Uncle Sam.

Guthrie, O. T., July 7.—The Cheyenne Indians near Calumet, in Canadian county, are reported to be holding a council of war, angry over an order issued by Major Stouch, Indian agent, prohibiting them from practising the dances, so-called, incident to their sun dance. The Indians are excited and the whites near Calumet are becoming frightened. Major Stouch has apprised the War department of the situation. About 2,000 Indians took part in the dance last week in celebration of their religious festival, and the dances were held in the open air. This is the first time that the dance of the Cheyennes has been stopped by the government authorities.

Accident to Chamberlain

His Head Dashed Through His Carriage Window and Badly Cut.

Injuries Severe But Not Dangerous—Colonial Conference Postponed To-Day.

London, July 7.—The Colonial Secretary, Joseph Chamberlain, was somewhat out on the head today as the result of a cab accident in Whitehall. His hansom was passing through the Canadian arch when the horses stopped and Mr. Chamberlain was precipitated forward with great violence. His head struck and shattered the glass front of the cab. When extricated it was seen that his head was badly lacerated and bleeding profusely. A policeman helped the secretary into a cab and accompanied him to Charing Cross hospital, where his injuries were dressed.

While Mr. Chamberlain's wounds bled a great deal, they were not serious. Nevertheless Mr. Chamberlain was sufficiently injured to necessitate his remaining at the hospital all night, and he was carried on a stretcher from the room, where his wounds were dressed, to a bed room.

It is officially announced that he is suffering from a severe head injury, of a severe but not dangerous character, rendering advisable his detention for the night. The gash on his forehead required a number of stitches. The conference of the colonial governors, which was to have been held tomorrow to discuss the question of Imperial defence, has been postponed owing to the accident. Mr. Chamberlain is resting quietly, but the doctors are not sure that he can be moved tomorrow.

Mrs. Chamberlain remained at the hospital until a late hour.

The following bulletin was issued this evening: "Charing Cross Hospital: Mr. Chamberlain is suffering from a scalp wound on the forehead. He is now free from pain and feeling comfortable. There is no concussion."

CASTRO'S SIDE LOSING.

Forces of Venezuela Government Again Defeated.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao, July 7.—President Castro of Venezuela left Caracas on Sunday, not for Valencia, as has been previously announced, but for La Guaira, taking with him his private guard of 500 veteran soldiers, and Gen. Ferrier as chief of staff. The President reached La Guaira in the afternoon and left there at midnight on the steamer Ossun, his destination being Guanta or Barcelona, about 150 miles east of La Guaira. He intends to reorganize the government forces at and about Barcelona, and assume the offensive against the revolutionists.

Nobody at Caracas can explain this change in his plans, and the step is considered as perilous as the invasion of the Valencia district by the main army of the revolutionists. This force will be opposed by the government army under Gen. Sefrino Castillo. Later in the day news reached here from Venezuela to the effect that 3,000 government troops under Gen. Modesto Castro, the President's brother, were completely routed July 3 between Barcelona and Aragua by the troops of the revolutionist army under the command of Gen. Rolando. The government forces left all their ammunition and equipment, and many of the soldiers deserted to the revolutionists during the engagement. After the battle the revolutionist army moved on Barcelona and surrounded that city. The inhabitants were panicked. The shops were closed and the streets were barricaded.

Trooper Goto, of Moncton, N. B., was instantly killed. Trooper Hickey of Halifax was badly injured and is not expected to recover. Trooper Hooper had his leg broken and two others were badly bruised.

Department of Agriculture Re-

Homestead Entries in Canada For Year Show A Large Increase.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Ottawa, Ont., July 7.—The Department of Agriculture has received a report from one of its fruit inspectors, who has recently visited nearly all the towns which are fruit distributing centres between Winnipeg and the Rocky Mountains. He states that everywhere he found great dissatisfaction from losses attending the handling of apples from Ontario. Most of the merchants stated that they would handle no more of such fruit if it continued to be packed as in the past. They expressed themselves as disgusted with the dishonesty which led packers to put small apples in the middle of the barrels and unsound and damaged fruit in packages which were represented to contain only sound fruit of first class quality. The inspector also reports that Canadian merchants have been receiving from the Western States supplies of apples which, though not nearly as good in flavor or texture as Ontario apples, are packed just for that they are represented to be. He states further, that the Northwest country is filling up with wonderful rapidly, and is only in its infancy as a market for Canadian fruit, but unless Ontario packers and shippers get hold of trade this year in a manner that will reflect credit on them, they are likely to lose that market permanently.

The Baptists of Ottawa have opened up a mission on Clarence street, in the heart of the French district. At early mass at the Basilica yesterday, Mgr. Rostier, Vicar-General, said the establishment of the mission was a direct insult to the French Catholic clergy and laity. He expressed regret that the hall had been rented for mission purposes by a French Catholic, a parishioner at the Basilica.

The total number of homestead entries in Canada for the year ending June 30, was 14,832, an increase of 6,065 over the previous year. The largest number of entries was at Regina, Edmonton being second.

Nearly 500 farmers from the constituency of the Minister of Justice came to Ottawa today on a visit to the Experimental Farm.

CANNERS AND FISHERMEN

Still Fail to Come to Agreement on the Price of Salmon.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Vancouver, July 7.—The canners and fishermen are as far away from an amicable settlement of the price of fish as ever. According to Mr. Durham, an active member of the fishermen's executive, the Grand lodge of the Fishermen's union met yesterday in Westminster, and decided to play a waiting game. In the meantime the Vancouver union have received no encouragement from the canners on their proposition to fish for 15 cents. It is understood that the Puget Sound trap owners can deliver fish much under that figure. The Indians are not satisfied with their 8 cents a fish up North and expect more on the Fraser, while it is reported the Japanese want 18 cents. There does not appear, however, to be unity between Japs, Indians and whites or between the grand lodge and subordinate lodges.

The canners have made but one offer, the sliding scale off, as follows: Up to 200,000, 20 cents; from 200,000 to 300,000, 16 cents; from 300,000 to 400,000, 13 cents; from 400,000 to 500,000, 11 cents; from 500,000 to 600,000 and over, 10 cents.

The cases of bribery against two policemen are still being investigated. The officers are accused of accepting hush money from Chinese gambling houses.

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY.

Annual Meeting Held in London and Dividend Declared.

Winnipeg, July 7.—A London cable says: The annual meeting of the Hudson's Bay company took place today, the governor, Lord Strathcona, presiding. The profits of the year were £138,197, compared with £68,536 for the previous year. Adding the £45,550 brought forward from last year, the total amount for distribution was £183,747, out of which the governor and his colleagues on the directorate of the company recommended the payment of a dividend of fifteen shillings per share and the payment of a bonus of seven shillings and sixpence per share, a total of twenty-two shillings and sixpence per share, equal to eight and three-quarters per cent. on the par value of the stock. Ten thousand pounds was added to the employees' benefit fund, and after making the foregoing appropriations there remains a balance of £61,247 to be carried forward to the next year.

Lord Strathcona took occasion to refer to the present marked prosperity of the Dominion and dwell upon the great future in store for Manitoba and the Northwest Territories. The commissioner and the staff in Canada were spoken of by His Lordship as deserving of all praise for their zealous co-operation in contributing to the company's continued success.

Coronation Will Be Soon

Report That the Ceremony Will Take Place During Month of August.

King and Queen Send Messages of Inquiry for Mr. Chamberlain.

Montreal, July 8.—The Star's London cable says: No intimation has yet reached the Canadian ministers regarding the date of the coronation. It is expected therefore at the close of August, or early in September, in which case Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. W. S. Fielding and other Canadian ministers will be here. It is hoped also that a fresh contingent of Canadian troops may come over.

Sir Frederick Borden is spending a few days in the country. It is intended to decorate the Canadian arch for Lord Kitchener's return with a new flag design. London, July 7.—King Edward will be crowned between August 11 and August 15. His recovery has been so rapid and satisfactory that the above decision was arrived at today. No official announcement of the fact has yet been made, however.

The pageant through the streets and the ceremony at Westminster Abbey will be much earlier than the original plan. Their Majesties will drive from Buckingham Palace to the Abbey through the Mall to Whitehall and thence to the Abbey, the same route as taken at the opening of parliament. King Edward passed a favorable day and the verbal report given out tonight was that His Majesty is still doing well.

The use by the Prince of Wales of the word "recovery" which he referred to the King's progress at the inauguration of the Raphael Nurses' Home of Guy's hospital, this evening is regarded in many quarters as indicating that the royal family considers the King's case most hopeful.

Mr. Chamberlain's injuries, although not dangerous, are likely to detain him in the house for the remainder of the week. He has already cancelled his engagements until next Thursday, and it is extremely doubtful if he will be permitted to attend the coronation banquet to be held in the Guildhall on Friday, or the reception to Lord Kitchener on Saturday, on his return from South Africa.

The Colonial Secretary has a nasty crescent-shaped cut across the forehead, three inches long and penetrating to the bone. Pieces of broken glass were unbedded in the wound. There was no concussion, but the bone is bruised. Mr. Chamberlain also sustained a slighter cut under the right eye.

Upon finding that he must remain in the hospital, the patient asked if he might be placed somewhere where he could smoke. He was thereupon carried to a room on the next floor. Mr. Chamberlain spoke of his accident lightly. He hopes to resume his official duties on Friday.

King Edward and Queen Alexandra and the Prince and Princess of Wales have sent messages of inquiry to Charles Cross hospital.

Final arrangements have been made for the consolidation of the Swift and Armour interests, which have recently gained control of the other packing concerns through the country."

President Mitchell Says Anthracite Workers Are Determined.

New York, July 7.—President Mitchell said today with H. M. He denies that their meeting had anything whatever to do with the Anthracite miners' strike or the soft coal mine situation or the approaching convention of the United Mine Workers at Indianapolis. Each asserted that they were together simply as boyhood friends, after seeing friends off for Europe.

Mr. Mitchell denied that he came to consult labor leaders regarding the advisability of the soft coal miners breaking their contracts with the operators to enter upon a general strike and reiterated that the anthracite miners would stay out until they won.

RETURN HOME.
Victoria Yachts Back from the Race Meeting at Port Townsend.

Mr. Gore's yacht Dione arrived home from a cruise to Port Townsend on Saturday morning, making the run of 35 miles in five hours, which is record time. The Dione, which was as usual the winner in both races in which she sailed at Port Townsend, in Wednesday's race she defeated the Hornet and Banshee, thus winning the challenge cup.

In a gale of wind estimated at 40 miles an hour, and a very big sea, one of the contesting yachts in C class, the Clarence G., of Port Hadlock, capsized and went to the bottom just before Friday's race started. Her crew of five or six men were all rescued by passing boats. In this race the Dione won against the Hornet and Banshee. The Banshee was successful in both her races, winning first place against all the others in B class.

VANCOUVER WON.
Boys' Cricket Team from Vancouver Defeated the Collegiate Eleven.

Mr. W. Pickering's cricket team from Vancouver, defeated the Collegiate school at the Canteen grounds yesterday afternoon. The Collegiate school batted first and made 48 runs. Vancouver responded with 80. In their second venture the Collegiate boys compiled 52 runs and Vancouver made the necessary to win with a loss of two wickets. The full score was as follows:

THE POINT ELLICE BRIDGE.

The City Council has received a very pointed reminder from the street railway company on the necessity for action in building the Point Ellice bridge.
The company has intimated that unless the bridge is built and in operation by May, 1903, the company will withdraw its donation of $20,000. A corporation has very seldom any public sympathy in any of its actions, and a street railway company rather less than any other corporation. But if this action of the company results, not in the withdrawal of the $20,000, but in stimulating the bridge-building activities of our civic Solons, the people of Victoria will find themselves in cordial sympathy with at least one action of what is popularly described as "a soulless corporation." There can be no doubt that a feeling of alarm and disquiet was spread abroad by the apparent countenance given by the council to Mr. Mohun's suggestion to substitute a bridge of reinforced concrete for a steel bridge. We say appear-ent countenance, because it appears that the council has satisfied itself of the impossibility of constructing a concrete bridge for the money available under the by-law. What we cannot understand is, if this is so, why should the council have dallied to any degree with Mr. Mohun's proposal. If the city fathers knew it to be impracticable under the circumstances, that is hardly a sufficient excuse for permitting it to be elaborated, and for sending abroad the painful impression that they did not know their own minds or, perhaps, a very different thing, what was best to be done. It is quite possible that Mr.
Mohun is simply allowed to make a fruitless attack upon an impregnable position in favor of a steel bridge. But we fail to see what advantage is gained by this permission. If we know human nature at all, there are some minds to whom he will appear to have succeeded in his attack, and with those the council will have lost prestige; while with the rest, the council may be criticized for having done the right thing, but not promptly and firmly.
However, if the mayor and aldermen will only surmount all difficulties, errors and indecisions, and go ahead to build the bridge, the people as a whole will commend them, and re-elect them all by large majorities in their respective wards, as a proper tribute to their importance in, and usefulness to, the community at large. If it is to be a steel bridge, and no doubt it is, the condition of the market for structural steel at the present time becomes an important factor, both in the cost of the bridge and the time taken to construct it. We question very much whether any American firm will guarantee delivery of the material required under six or eight months, or longer time than it would take to import the steel round the Horn from Great Britain. We know, on the other hand, that a British firm would be quite likely to begin a mail correspondence that would last that length of time before signing a contract at all. So that between the perfectly inexplicable and futile procrastination of British firms, and the press of business upon American firms, we are likely to find ourselves between the devil and the deep sea, in procuring the steel necessary for the bridge. At the same time, the difference in price between the two is very marked. The Americans cannot compete with the British in structural steel in any of the Pacific Ocean markets except their own. If the time is to be about the same, price and patriotism should determine the country from which the steel should come.

HOW TO CAPTURE AN OUTLAW.

It is evidently not as easy to capture an outlaw as it looks. On several occasions the Oregon convict Tracy has fought himself out of awkward situations with the greatest coolness and intelligence. Every day that he continues to live his reputation is adding to his power. His name is becoming terrible.
His adventures recall an incident which occurred a long time ago somewhere on the borders between Ontario and Quebec.
A stalwart Glengarry Highlander committed some crime or another, and, to avoid capture and punishment, took to the woods, where he defied the police, assisted by the militia, for weeks. On one occasion a French-Canadian captain of militia, with his company surrounded him in a clump of bush. The problem was how to get hold of him.
Finally the captain of militia solved it, or thought he did. "Ah!" he said, "we get a piper, he play the pipes. That bring him out." So they got a piper, and he marched up and down playing pibrochs and strathspeys and laments, without any effect whatever upon the invisible bandit. Although the experiment failed upon this occasion, there is no saying but that Tracy might be more impressible, and the next time the authorities of the State of Washington have him surrounded they might send for a tenor to sing, "The Last Rose of Summer," and "The Harp That Once in Tara's Halls" to him. We do not know whether the authorities of the State of Washington will look upon this idea with favor, but really they have met with such success in all the other methods so far adopted to capture Tracy, that they ought not to be too proud to consider a well meant suggestion.

INDUSTRY AT IRONDALE.

We hear that the pig iron produced at Irondale from British Columbia iron ore has been pronounced by the highest authority in the United States to be the best pig iron with one exception made in the world. That is a great compliment to our iron resources, but it is far from being a compliment to ourselves.
Here we have the resources unequalled for quality and convenience; here we have the opportunity of expanding trade upon the Pacific Ocean, small now in comparison with the tremendous dimensions to which it must grow, yet here we have a people in whom want of faith in these resources and opportunities, has only given place to careless inability to reap any of their advantages for themselves, and a detached admiration of those who are gathering in the harvest.
We have never yet met anyone who has denied the facts or disproved the arguments we have advanced in these columns on the question of our iron resources.
We should very much prefer to be put out of court at once with facts and figures, which are indisputable, than to face a deadly indifference to the loss of the province's greatest opportunity, a loss to which people are indifferent because they have not apparently the faculty of recognizing opportunity in the bud. It is true that the Board of Trade and the Voters' League have taken the question up, and that there has been a murmuring in one or two provincial papers. But is all this simply an academical recognition of the fact that iron making is now a possibility on the Pacific, or is it practical consideration which has action at the goal of deliberation?
The company operating the iron smelter at Irondale, we have it on good authority, has just booked a contract for 10, 000 tons of pig iron. Ten thousand tons do not make up a very large amount of pig iron as modern figures go, but they are a solid fact more important than a whole dictionary of gush about the iron resources of the province. We hear also that the Irondale smelter is producing nearly all the pig iron consumed in Victoria and Vancouver? If so the foundries in Victoria and Vancouver are paying $3.80 a ton more than it would cost to make the iron at home ($3, the loss of the bounty and 80 cents the duty on two tons of iron ore into the United States) besides the duty on pig iron coming into Canada. Under conditions like those, no industry dependent on pig iron can possibly flourish. Of course the reply is made that the market for pig iron in British Columbia is not large enough to support a furnace. What of that? We have only 20 cents a ton against us in selling in the United States market as compared with the Irondale smelter, and an advantage of $3.80 a ton in every other market. Surely then, we could sell wherever the Irondale smelter can sell, and the Island of Vancouver support a smelter as easily as "I FAILED, AND IF EVER IT IS

The Louisiana legislature has passed a law that no history shall ever be used In the local option towns of Pennsylvania, the Virginians, and Maryland, the "Jamaica ginger habit" is for obvious reasons very prevalent. In the same towns blindness, so the doctors say, is increasing alarmingly. Wood alcohol causes blindness, and wood alcohol is largely used in making Jamaica ginger.

The sight of the human race would be in grave danger if we could be sure that Jamaica ginger is the only beverage in the manufacture of which wood alcohol is extensively used.

In one of his books Alphonse Daudet speaks of a crowd remaining "standing for two hours on those glaring flag stones, in that overpowering, blinding sun, while breathing in, as it were, at every breath, flames and dust smelling of gunpowder, and running the risk of ophthalmia, sunstrokes, violent fevers, and all the dangers and tortures of what is called in that region a noonday fete." Strange to say, the region he is talking about is not North America, but the South of France.

It is quite true that worry causes a useless waste of energy. The hardest physical and mental work does not exhaust the body and mind as greatly as one day's worry does. A man may toil by day and night and still retain strength and health, but worry soon unmans him.
It pales his cheeks, it cures his sleep, it makes his eyes, it causes nervous startlings and twitches, it clogs his digestive operations, it gives him the blues and makes him thoroughly unhappy.
When a man worried he feels a dull pain in the chest, caused, it is said, by the reaction of the troubled mind on a large nerve ganglion or centre. The relation between the mind and body, through their glands, and the nervous system, is extremely intimate. A worried man is more liable to take a disease than is a man whose mind is placid.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

CHINESE LABOR.

Sir,—In your leader of yesterday (Friday) you, along with your correspondent, Mr.
Wiley, deplore Chinese displacement of white labor, domestically. With the deference to him and you, as knowing Victoria and its needs better than we, it seems to me doubtful whether it is actual "displacement" by numbers of Chinese, or simply a condition arising from the fact of women being fitted for and willing for domestic service here. That parents should prefer to keep their children at home, when possible, is natural. Then the question arises, how are you going to meet the demand, if you exclude Chinese domestics? As secretary of a public institution in Vancouver for a year, that dealt entirely with women's work I can testify to the supply being far below the demand, there are only about C. P. R. There is a remedy and perhaps a few points taken into consideration may set Mr. Wiley's able pen a-ravelling in the right direction to bring about this remedy of the grievance he sets before us, and at the same time, perhaps, relieve the Mother Country of a small part of her surplus women. In England alone, there are a million more women than men and these for the most part, a formless, unorganized mass. A mass of capabilities and possibilities untested, by reason of the glutted labor markets. Added to the fact that the married women in England is of the middle class, the daughters of professional men, mostly.
Many of them willing to leave home and home and kindred, for the sake of lessening the strain at home and advancing personal independence. These classes of women coming out to B. C. give themselves fewer advantages than ordinary servants and quickly adapt themselves to the new country.
There are many, happily placed up country who bake, scrub, wash and churn as if to the manna born, yet their cultivated companionship is a boon to many a hard-worked mother away from the socialities and intellectual pleasures of town life. There are others, for the bringing out, who would be only too glad to earn that $20 per month by scrubbing, baking, washing and waiting upon your correspondent. Others that can take entire charge of the education of children and their wardrobes.

South Africa is being boomd as a salutable place for such emigrants; large salaries are being offered to women who will cooperate in domestic as well as educational work. The Colonial Training Home in England, turns out these women well equipped. Cannot B. C. absorb some of them? Can we not in this glorious country make openings for women of narrow lives and circumstances to expand? Women, whose pride it is to give an equivalent in full for their wages. Thus we might rid Victoria of Chinese domestics and help to people it with loyal hearted British women.

With apologies for taking up so much of your valuable space, I am, Sir, EMILIA RHODES.

OUR DEAD.

Sometimes I think that those we've lost, safe lying on the Eternal Rest.
 One hour sounds like a century, but the perfect sweetness of their rest; but when one thought of holy love is stirred in hearts they love below. Through some due waves of ambience air, they feel, they see it, and they know.
 As rays unseen—absent light—Are caught by films of silver salt When these are set to watch by night The wheelings of the stars vault—So may the souls that live and dwell In one great soul the Point of all.
 No evil faintest trembling in the sphere On wayward suns, or falling stars, No fear of sin, or coming loss, They wait in light, imperious rest.
 The final triumph of the cross.
 —The Duke of Argyll.

Sealing Fleet A Small One

But Thirteen Vessels Get Crews
For the Behring Sea Cruise.

Eight Schooners Will Remain Behind—Lighthouses
to be Built.

This season will see the smallest fleet of sealing schooners in the Behring Sea for many years. As a result of the failure to get crews, eight of the schooners, that were to have been fitted out, have been obliged to be taken up, seven having been ordered home from the coast, and the Ida Etta was unable to get away. According to advices brought by the steamer Willapa, seven of the Coast fleet have been taken up, and the remainder of those which have secured Indians will be short of their usual complement of hunters. At Jackessett the schooner Otto, Capt. Gossie, had six canoes when the steamer left Kluqnot and the schooner Penelope, Capt. G. Heater, and Arietis, Capt. W. Heater, were securing crews, and likely to get away shortly for Behring Sea. The C. D. Ruck, Capt. Searle, had secured a crew of Heskioits and Koskemos, having filled up at Heskioit, and she was ready for sea. The independent schooner Umbria, Capt. J. Haan, had 12 canoes, six of which were secured at Heskioit, where the schooner had been securing her Indians for some seasons past, and six at Ahousett, whence the schooner sailed on Sunday for Heskioit to pick up the canoes. The Annie E. Pault, Capt. McKie, and Ainoka, Capt. McDougall, were both getting crews at Ahousett, but the schooner Sadie Turpel, Capt. Mohrhouse, will have to return to port, being unable to get Indians. At Clayquot but one of the three schooners which went to the villages there will secure a crew, the Diana, Capt. St. Clair, the Alle I. Algar, Capt. Baker, and Ocean Bait, Capt. Robbins, being obliged to return to port as a result of the failure to secure Indians. The Fawn, Capt. Delonchey, has also been unsuccessful, and is coming home. The Favorite, Capt. McLean, was seen on her way to the coast with lumber, having secured a crew for the season before leaving Victoria, and the Victoria, Capt. H. Balcom, and the Zillah, May, Capt. Balcom, were outboard with crews secured here, the former having a small complement, which was expected to be filled on the coast. The Carrie C. W., Capt. West, secured here, and the Enterprise also has a crew from Victoria. The Ida Etta, which was provisioned and made ready, has been stripped, and the Zillah, Capt. Byers, already back from the coast, having failed to get crews. Therefore the fleet which goes to the sea this year will number but 13—which is the smallest for many seasons.

ECHOES OF THE GALES.

Life Buys and Case of Red Rock Salmon Found at Lowe Inlet.

Capt. Gaudin, local agent of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, received a letter from W. D. Curtis, manager of the Lowe Inlet cannery, yesterday morning, telling of the finding of a life buoy, and a case of salmon, by Indians in the vicinity of Lowe Inlet on June 28. The buoy, somewhat worn, and all marks obliterated, from pounding received on the rocks, was forwarded to the agent, and is now at his office. It was found on the south shore of Alacany Island, five miles west of Dark Island. The lettering is gone, but at the top and bottom are the marks of two shields, where the name has evidently been shelled off on the buoy. The shields and the nearly obliterated marks of the flags, which were evidently Union Jacks, show a marked resemblance to the manner in which the ill-fated Condon's buoy were marked. The salmon, which was picked up in the vicinity on the same day, was marked D. T. H., on one end, and from portions of the labels, Mr. Curtis made the salmon half pound flatfish, the lettering distinct, of which P. H. Durham, and Brodie are the local agents. The salmon is identical with that found on Alacany Island some months ago, shipped by Finlay, Durham & Brodie on the Red Rock, and is evidently from that vessel, which arrived safely at her destination. Robert Ward & Co., local agents of the Red Rock, have received a letter from London to the effect that 2,700 cases of all were left on that vessel, valued at about $14,000. A description of the jettisoned salmon was not given. Mr. Curtis, in his letter to Capt. Gaudin, says that he learned that a Kikikati Indian has picked up a buoy in the same vicinity with the lettering distinct. He did not learn what name was on the buoy.

WILLAPA RETURNS.

Brings News of the Progress of the Telegraph Line.

Steamer Willapa, which returned from the West Coast at noon yesterday, brought among her passengers a number of the workmen who have been constructing the telegraph line along the Vancouver Island Coast to connect Clayquot with the outside world. Two-thirds of the wire has been stretched, so that the men left. The worst part of the country has been covered, for the 50 miles that has been built passes through a rocky country, rough and thickly wooded. Some of the construction party have had narrow escapes. George McDonald, at one time being caught by a falling tree, and held fast until he was rescued some time later by his companions. P. McMillan and George Minchin also sustained injuries during the work.

News was received from Effingham Creek of the killing of a panther measuring eight feet from tip to tip. The passengers who arrived by the Willapa were: J. Young, M. Young, and R. Lee, from Clayquot; W. J.

ARRIVED AT TELEGRAPH.

Mount Royal Reached the Head of the Stikine on Sunday.

A despatch received yesterday from Telegraph Creek by the Hudson's Bay company, reports the arrival there on Sunday of the new sternwheeler Mount Royal, which was built at the Victoria Machinery Depot in this city for the company. The river steamer had been detained at the big canyon of the Stikine for eight days on account of the high water. The vessel is now on her way down the river, and will leave Wrangell again on the 15th en route to Telegraph Creek. After making that trip she will leave for the Skeena river to finish the season at work on the Northern British Columbia river.

TO BUILD LIGHTHOUSES.
Chief Engineer of Marine and Fisheries Coming to Victoria.

Col. W. P. Anderson, chief engineer of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, is expected to reach Victoria within the next month to examine several sites for proposed lighthouses, for the construction of which application has been made by the Board of Trade and local shipmasters. It is probable that as a result of his coming three new lighthouses will be added to the 25 which are now maintained in British Columbia waters, two on the West Coast, and the others in the Gulf and in Northern waters, and the channels between Vancouver Island and the mainland. One of the new lighthouses will be built in all probability on Pointe Rocks, near the scene of the disaster of the collier Bristol, where it is stated there is urgent need of a light. Col. Anderson will make a cruise on the steamer Quadra to examine the various sites, and will in all probability make a complete inspection of the lighthouses and aids to navigation in British Columbia, as well as looking into the question of foreshore rights and fish hatcheries, all of which are equally under his jurisdiction. He has control of the building and maintenance of lighthouses, lightships, fog alarms, buoys, and beacons, government steamers, the administration of the marine provinces, the removal of wrecks and obstructions to navigation, tidal and current surveys, construction and maintenance of fish hatcheries, examination of applications for foreshore rights, and water lot privileges, hydrographic work of the Dominion, notices to mariners, etc.

Since he has been connected with the Department of Marine and Fisheries, which he entered as assistant engineer in 1874, Col. Anderson has built 235 lighthouses and 40 fog alarms. He installed the occulting light and electrical operated fog alarm at Brodie ledge, which was born at Point Levee in 1881, and is a prominent millman having been for two years the editor of the Canada Militia Gazette, which he founded in 1885.

HALIBUT FISHERIES.

Kilmory Brings Another Good Fish Cargo to Port.

The fishing schooner Kilmory returned to port on Sunday after a cruise of about eight days off Cape Flattery, with a catch of about five tons of halibut, and a ton of cod. The halibut, which is packed in boxes well filled with ice, was landed yesterday from the schooner on board the steamer Yosemite, for shipment to the Cold Storage company at New Westminster, by whom it is shipped to the consumers in the cities of the East. The Kilmory had a rough trip. On Friday she encountered a heavy gale on the banks, and was the only schooner of the fleet to hold her anchorage, the others drifting well out to sea. On her last trip home she brought a larger catch than usual, and was towed to New Westminster on her arrival in order to hurry the shipment of her fish.

MARINE NOTES.

The steamer Tees will sail for Naas, Skegatte and way ports on Thursday night. The United States lighthouse tender Manzanita dropped into James Bay on Sunday shortly after the United States steamer Gedney left for Comox en route to Alaska waters on a surveying cruise. The Manzanita, which is from Seattle, came here for supplies. She will continue her cruise today.

Steamer Marissa, of San Francisco, made her first trip to the coast on Friday. She has been fitted with new triple-expansion engines, and is expected to make 17 knots; her carrying capacity is 6,500 barrels. On the 15th she will sail for Tahiti in place of the Australia. Reinsurance on the Patterdale, out 105 days from Newcastle, N. S. W., for Valparaiso, has been advanced to 50 per cent. The rate on the Brenn remains unchanged at 20 per cent. The vessel was last seen February 21 by the June Guillon, which arrived at San Francisco, June 24.

DOLPHIN DOWN.

Reached Seattle on Sunday With $600,000 in Gold.

Contrary to expectations, the steamer Dolphin did not call here on her way South from Skagway. It was expected that she would call to land R. W. Jennings, of Skagway, who is suffering from paralysis, but she proceeded direct to Seattle, arriving there on Sunday. The Dolphin had $600,000, half a million going to the Selby Smelting works of San Francisco, and the Canadian Bank

EMPIRESS DELAYED.

Will Not Sail Until Wednesday Owing to Tardy Arrival of Train.

Steamer Empress of China, which was to have sailed for the Orient last night with a good passenger list and a moderate cargo, will not leave until tomorrow, having been delayed as a result of the non-arrival of the express. A wash-out, caused by the overflow of the Bow river near Calgary, is delaying the train. The steamer Tartar, of this line, is due to reach the Outer wharf next Sunday from the Orient. The Empress of Japan arrived at Hongkong yesterday from this port. The Athenian, which sailed from here on June 23, is due at Yokohama today. Steamer Tosa, of the N. Y. K. line, arrived at Yaguchi on Friday. The Duke of Life of the N. P. line reached the Japanese port on Sunday.

MARINE NOTES.

Steamer Nell sailed for Naas, Simpson, and way ports last night.

The vessel of the pipe for the operations of the dredge King Edward in James Bay was commenced yesterday morning. The dredge is taking soundings, and the fleet of yachts has been moved. Dan McIntosh has also been notified to move his boat house from the scene of the operations.

Steamer Spokane, the excursion vessel of the Pacific Coast Steamship company, is due from Skagway, Sitka, and Alaska ports.

Steamer Umatilla is due from San Francisco. The steamer Queen will sail South for San Francisco tonight. Steamer City of the U. S. Fish and Game and Tullus, reached San Francisco on Sunday.

The despatch from Honolulu published in the Colonist on Sunday morning to the effect that the U. S. S. Mohican was 37 days out from Yokohama to that port, and that some uneasiness was felt on her account, caused a flutter of excitement at Work Point, where Mrs. A. R. Cowden, wife of the commander of the Mohican resides. A wire was immediately sent to the Secretary of the navy at Washington, and also to Admiral Miller at San Francisco, and they immediately replied that no uneasiness was felt about the vessel. In the first place, she did not leave Yokohama until two days after her scheduled time, and therefore when the despatch was sent out from Honolulu she was only 35 days on her voyage, and as she always uses her sails, she was not then due; in fact if she made the trip in 38 days she would be doing very well. The Mohican is an old vessel, used as a training ship, and has on board some 100 boys. In the course she would take from Yokohama to Honolulu she would have to sail 4,500 miles.
